Students should be allowed to wear hats when going to class, during class, to to in-school activities. Any gender at school should be allowed to wear hats because it is similar to wearing bracelets, earrings, or any type of jewelry as way of self-expression. The hat should not have drugs, alcohol, sexual connotation, or foul/abusive language. The hat should also not cover the face.

Students should remove hats during the Pledge of Allegiance. Teachers will be able to tell students to remove the hat, if it becomes a distraction in class.
